Details View (Screen Reader with User Interaction)

Version 1.0

Screen Reader with User Interaction

Popup header → Close "X" button → User selected "X" button? — No → "Type" column header and content → "Date & Time" column header and content → Title of content → Date and time → Author (Lastname, Firstname) → Status (i.e. Signed, Unsigned, etc.) → (1)

User selected "X" button? — Yes →

The user can switch back and forth between the "Type" and "Date & Time" columns

(1) → "Edit" button → User selected "Edit" button? — No → "Print" button → User selected Print button? — No → "Entered in Error"/"Delete" button → User selected "Entered in Error" button? — No → Preview content (read-only), read left to right, from top to bottom → End

User selected "Edit" button? — Yes → Edit Form

User selected Print button? — Yes → User's default print dialog opens

Once closed, the process continues.

User selected "Entered in Error" button? — Yes → "Entered in Error"/"Delete" modal

Hyperlinks back to the Edit Form workflow based on the Feature's requirements to allow the user to edit the form.

Hyperlinks back to "Entered in Error" or "Delete" modal workflow based on the Feature's requirements.

User Workflow Overview

The details view provides the user an opportunity to review a read-only preview of a form (e.g. a preview of a note, vital form, etc.). From this preview, the user may choose to open the edit form, print the preview, or delete the form based on the Feature's requirements.